Good point, it pays to remember it wasn't written in English. For example the commandment 'Thou shall not kill' was miss translated from 'Thou shall not Murder'. Which raises all sorts of moral questions about euthanasia, abortion, etc.

Or the miss translation of the Word 'Virgin', which was 'originaly Young' woman. Translation is difficult, and subtle mistakes can have a big impact.

I believe much of the Bible is right, yes, and as a Christian I support it. However you cannot take every word verbatim as law.
