That's exactly what I said...

how the fuck can you be so ignorant as to say something is wrong based on religion when not everyone follows the same religion as you? YOU see it as wrong, THEY don't. Since THEY are the ones that it actually MATTERS for, your opinion in the matter HAS NO RELEVANCE WHATSOEVER.

YOU beleive that being gay is wrong, and will result in damnation. Go ahead and keep believing that. But don't try to ram that beleif down the throats of people who obviously have a very different set of beliefs. And DEFINITELY don't take it into politics...then it becomes more than just pathetic and hypocritical, it becomes oppressive and wrong.

Who someone loves and/or fucks is their own business, not yours. [/b]
