Yes that IS strange looking. It's like a odd blue m00n rover from that pic. With a canopy instead of being a convertible. It could be like a replacement for the buggy if its fast or the stealth tank if its... stealth, in some weird future funky mod. Only think I'd say is the detail on the side of the wheels. It looks quite odd. Add a rim of some kind, and if your feeling ambitious, 26's.
