A bit of my C&C merchandise\collectible stuff that I've gotten over the years.

So far, I have every C&C soundtrack, from Tiberian Dawn to Red Alert, Tiberian Sun, RA2, and Renegade... Except Generals because that music sounds like a ripoff of Black Hawk Down.

In addition to the Allied\Soviet lapel pinset from RA (Not RA2)... A few C&C posters, like the World Domination Tour from Red Alert and the Red Alert: Retaliation poster of a Tesla Tank shocking the piss out of a soldier.

That, plus the games themselves, and The Aftermath music in CD form... No one else has that.

Then Jeff's carved oak GDI logo that he mailed me...

And podkilr's GDI\Nod logo made of metal that he sent me a few months back...

Plus my Renegade t-shirt that the Renegade development team sent me with the beta test.

Then my C&C sweater that cost $50

And my C&C hat...

Anyone else got anything interesting?
