Toastylol that's worth telling your mates about..... :rolleyes:

lol toasty you make me laugh, you make snide comments about peoples collection of cnc stuff and how lame it is to collect, but not only are you a renegade clan leader but also working on the genesis mod. what is worse, a couple of plastic models in the corner of the room, or several months of you life spent coding to make a mod that a few people will play??

Do you tell your mates about genesis??
