Speaking of being killed by the harvester I got run over by the GDI harvie twice in one game. The sad thing was it was at the same spot both times. I was sniping the GDI players as they were coming out of the base then the harvester decided to run over me on its way back to base.

I try to make it funny. Sometimes after throwing my C4 on the harvester I stand in its path and wait to be run over. As I am run over you see this:
