Same with me for the banlist, or is this just a custom one that's used if the player isn't ingame - if so, is it just the playername that needs to be entered, or the IP as well?

Quote:abd i have the problem some have ban anyone and if i use the command !kicklog to see the bans the bot will be kickt from irc. how can i see the banlist to remove someone from the list?

That's the flood protection. Your channel probably has another bot in it that kicks when you flood etc. - change the bot's script so that it ignores the ServerBot.
