The map was Field and I was doing my usual sniping run in the Tunnels as a Deadeye. One Stealth Blackhand had a Railgun and kept taking pot shots at me and ran away to re-cloak. Later on in the game I was sniping down the Airstrip entrance. I then proceeded the central area of the Tunnel and decided to fire my rifle to see if I would luckily hit any Stealth Blackhand cowards. I was next to where the crate spawns. I aimed at the entrance at the waterfall. Boink, I got a headshot on a cloaked Stealth Blackhand.
