ack your maps are not the most played. Infact because of your arrogance renwarz refuses to host any of your maps (for some reason they have tropics and snow in the rotation... dunno why...). That alone should tell you something :rolleyes:

Seriously, why do you want to act like this sometimes? Titan's maps are all original, he didn't have any help westwood like you and his maps don't have bugs like yours!

e.g. glacier flying, mines sink into the floor! and wtf is that floating electricity thing in the middle of the map? Half the time its covered with mines, I don't know how that map got into the westwood patch. Also, on glaceirTS, where the hell is the Hand of nod's roof?

Anyway I'm hosting 4 of titan's maps and 4 of yours, people like them all and play so you shouldn't fight each other but help each other out and make even cooler maps.
