Aircraftkiller You can call them lame, it really doesn't matter to me, because they're the most played, most downloaded, and highest rated in the entire C&C community.

Renegade Alert has had over 100,000 downloads... Same with the 0.992 patch.

Six levels are in that.

All of my levels, combined, across around 30 C&C websites, have had over 500,000 downloads, they're played daily on WOL, and usually have large games in them.

Have you seen the amount of people complain when it's dm_isles? You make bad maps too, so don't be all arrogant and shit.
