DBXMasterlol, I aint using gamespy......

From my opinion its shit becuase you can have characters you want for names and some people have the most complecated names and it takes about 10 minutes to get their name right to kick em.

you really shouldn't be running a server if you don't know you can ban/kick by id in the fds or by using /<X> where x is the first part of there name and it prints out there whole name :rolleyes:

Besides that, if thats the only reason why don't want to run a gsa server, its really weak. :rolleyes:
