hydra- you know whats really getting old???? you saying "ehhh im a stuck up asshole sixteen year old, did you pull that out of your ass retard man iq of 1?? eh... its unfortunate i contribute less than that freak retard man who has eh... eh..... you pull that out of your ass.... you crapped that out didnt you..... eh!!!!!!!!!" honestly your starting to make me angry. in response to your post about your eight year old cousin.

Firstly, he is unfortunate to have such an asshole for a cousin.

Secondly, since you are so determined that i have split personalities, maybe i am your cousin.....

I AM SORRY ABOUT THE STOCK MARKET LIKE I SAID I AM NOT WELL LEARNED IN THAT FIELD, BUT I TRIED MY BEST. I AM OPENLY ADMITTING WHEN IT COMES TO THAT TOPIC CRIMSON IS MUCH MUCH MUCH SMARTER.

:oops: :oops:

well, now that i have fed your egos i will give it laxatives.... in a manner of speaking.... or at least thing i am

why do they call it the war on iraq when we are trying to liberate it, i thought saddam was what we were trying to fix not the whole damn country also, saying that we would have wasted the money that we already wasted on the war is stupid. it might be true for all i know but even if we did "waste it" it would help a lot more people for a lot longer of a time. im not saying welfare taxes are the greatest thing in the world (actually it might seem like it but there goes the split personality again her huh! ((that was laughing)))

i understand where you are coming from about people having welfare as a career basically, maybe that is why clinton pretty much got rid of it during his term.

as for the drug smuggling thing (im not sure if that was it, but it was something equally scandalous, i will try to find a link or reference)

i would like to reiterate this (even though it is futile because i basically made fun of myself using this) but i am not schizophrenic and i do not have split personality disorder. you say i have the same IP but have you checked any of the other IPs i bet they are all different.

i hate to say this, but i am sorry if i offend you horribly. im also sorry i am not that good at typing. but please just because i think or express myself differently than you other guys doesnt mean i am totally worthless, say what you want, but as long as i know that you are respecting my opinion and beliefs i will feel a little bit better about myself.

i would be very grateful for the above, and i will TRY to tone down my posts.
