OK, let me get this straight... Clinton started "doing something" about the terrorist attacks in 2000, after the USS Cole bombing?

What about in January 1993, two CIA agents are shot and killed as they enter CIA headquarters in Langley, Virginia. The following month, February 1993, a group of terrorists are arrested after a rented van packed with explosives is driven into the underground parking garage of the World Trade Center in New York City. Six people are killed and over 1000 are injured.

Then in November 1995 a car bomb explodes at a US military complex in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia killing seven service men and women. A few months later in June of 1996, another truck bomb explodes only 35 yards from the US military compound in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia. It destroys the Khobar Towers, a US Air Force barracks, killing 19 and injuring over 500.

The terrorists are getting braver and smarter as they see that America does not respond decisively. They move to coordinate their attacks in a simultaneous attack on two US embassies in Kenya and Tanzania. These attacks were planned with precision, they kill 224. America responds with cruise missile attacks.

This was a minimally-edited summary of terrorist acts against our country from 1993 - 2000 (Clinton's term) excluding the USS Cole attack. If you remember, I posted this before, it was written by Dan Ouimette, Pensacola Civitan, on 19 Feb 2003.

These terrorist attacks have been going on since November 1979, in a country going through a religious and political upheaval. A group of Iranian students attacked and seized the American Embassy in Tehran.

Remember, I am not saying that 9/11 was Clinton's fault. But I am saying that he did basically not a damn thing against terrorism. Because ever since Bush got our troops out there to overthrow the regimes supporting terrorism, we haven't had a single attack against American soil. No embassies have been attacked, no planes hijacked... nothing. We haven't been attacked in over two years. That HAS to say SOMETHING, doesn't it?
