Xtrm2MattHave you tried another format / install?Yeah, one thing i should've mentioned, is that at the time i posted this thread i had formatted and installed 4 times already... with no success.

NHJ BVIf it still hangs then there's something seriously wrong with either your copy of XP or your computerWell, it's an original *cough* CD of XP, that's installed perfectly on this machine i'm using right now.
