Isn't it sad, but yet funny, when you are deprived the opportunity to view the progress of vloktbody's and other member's work; and not to be able to see what's new in the Renegade community because SS was foolish to click on a goat.cx link? That's the only reason I was banned; I've done nothing bad against Black-Cell. Never done any attacking towards you, never took down any of your Renegade servers, or anything of that nature.

Grow some balls, if you haven't seen that picture before, then you aren't part of the Renegade community. I can almost guarantee that everyone who has replied to this thread has seen that picture.

Let us not forget this is the same person who gave away the secret n00bstories hub IP address to people so they could DoS attack it?

I find this funny that most of you are banned from n00bstories, or atleast black-listed/shit-listed in a number of their channels, that you find a need to ban me. However, when other user or users (who shall remain nameless) have spread negative propaganda about the entire Black-Cell people/network as a whole, banned a number of you from #n00bstories, still can play and enjoy your servers and can watch what you all are doing and have to offer.

Considering the work (or atleast most of the work) of Black-Cell will not be shared with the rest of the Renegade community.. other members in this community would like to learn from you, but you continually deprive them of having the chance. What you guys have done has been attempted by many others and failed.

So I connected to your server? So the fucking what. I wasn't bothering anyone, I was simply watching what was going on. Any harassing to you through AIM done over the past few days was not the work of me, and you damn well know it. (I'll let that person remain nameless as well.)

Just a few weeks ago, I was IMed on AIM by ccfan who started calling me names, cussing at me, etc. For no reason, that I could determine. After that I blocked everyone from Black-Cell on AIM, except for one person. After I did that, he changed screen-names and did it again.

After a few minutes of watching, I was PM-ed and harassed by Scrumfy. Who started toying with me. I did not start the fight.

We even founded a network together, remember that? The days where we made Scrumfy an IRCop and he started banning me from channels, breaking into my channels after I banned him, and so on.

All I can say is grow the fuck up. You all are acting like a bunch of little kids.
