CwazyapeHe is beginning to talk about Homosexuals as Hitler talked about the Jews, a "deterioration of our standards".

You know, quite a bit of Hitler's thinking was derived from Darwin's theory. "In starting and waging war it is not right that matters, but victory." - Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf, Ch. 14 "Survival of the fittest," perhaps? Hitler basicly used God and Christianity as a tool to ensnare the masses to support him.

Now back on topic, people. We're supposed to be talking about the movie.
