I wish I could remember the article, but both The Washington Post and The New York Times had posted stories about Iraq donating money to Chirac. Note: BOTH papers are major Anti-Bush.

Your comment #3. I agree. The name change from French Fries to "Freedom" Fries is lame. BTW what do you call American Cheese?

France has been selling Iraq equipment to make WOMD, as well as weapons. France has a vested interest in its banks in Iraq.

Back to #1 France also supported and gave weapons and money to Iraq in the 1980's. The US stopped when they realized the path Iraq was going. France kept on going. Did you know France was selling weapons to Iraq during the first Gulf War? My question on that is what was the credibility of France then?

Iraq gassed its own people AFTER the First Gulf War! They are a threat. Remember Iraq launched SCUDS against Israel in the First Gulf War. That was an unprovoked attack. Again you say Iraq is not a threat. Iraq threatened to destroy Kuwait 2 weeks ago for backing the US. They also went as far as to call Kuwait a rouge state of Iraq that will be put back in its place. Hmmm. What could that mean? Again, Iraq is not a threat! Iraq had 12 years to disarm. They have had France block any attempts to seriously search for the weapons. Any time something big came up it was France to discredit the claim. Even when the proof is right there. France had publicly stated they deal with Iraq in weapons. They are comfortable with it because they know the weapons are pointed at someone else. I wonder who that someone else is? Again, Iraq is not a threat.

You never answered to my comment about Iraq giving money to the families of suicide bombers against Israel. Is that not supporting terrorism? Thus making Iraq a terroristic nation. Iraq is more dangerous now than what it was 12 years ago. I think Iraq has a nuke and France knows about it, because they sold them the equipment to make it.

Oh, isn't funny how the US Department of Defense announced to Germany that the number of American troops there would be reduced drastically, and German politicians freaked out telling the US that we are needed there? If you don't need us, why do you cry when we want to remove some troops?
