Umbral_DelaFlareAs I said before, please explain how she can remotely control Renegade servers, and I'll gladly uninstall Renguard.

They have the ability to "globally ban" people from every server connected to the RG network, as well as the ability to send messages to each, and probably to get the detailed game info from each. I don't even see why a master server is needed, RG is supposed to catch everyone anyway...It must be another control thing.
