One last message from that flame thread that I was going to add before it was locked.

I am sorry that I decided to stay up for three hours to fix my mistake. I am also sorry that I wasn't born a year earlier and had graduated so I could continue to debate and not worry about school. Debating with you is fun, but you have an opinion that I and many other dislike. You may have freedom of speech, but you have overstayed your welcome. You wouldn't be one of my targets if you hadn't acted in such a manner to be a target. I do not feel the need to go into detail with in what manner you acted.

Alkaline, nobody likes you. You have proven yourself time and time again to be a complete moron. Unlike Scrumfy, you have no common sense and you have the urge to speak where you have no knowlege. I may not own a server, but I do know what many well respected members have said about FDS Serials. You have no knowledge on what we are debating about in this thread. Even those who are debating me see you as an annoyance on these boards.

For anyone that disrespects these forums or Crimson and n00bstories:

You have no place on these forums if you continue to act in a way that is not appropriate. I am one who shouldn't be here after what happened last night. Although I made MYSELF out to be a fucktard, I feel that I have made up for most of my actions. I am truly sorry and I hope to make up for it. This is the difference between you and me. I can realize my own idiocracy and attempt to make up for it.

I still believe in NFD and with a few changes, we can be effective. I think me and pvt have proven how civilized and committed we are during our debates. NFD would like to ask for support from the Renegade Forums community. We are dedicated to bringing you forums that you can have threads without morons, and in return, a forum with little or no flaming. I feel that I have a little extra time on my hands and that's why I am doing this, but I also tired of acting like a moron to counteract Alkaline and others. I fell into the trap I posted a quote about which stated, "Never fight with an idiot, he will only bring you down to his level and beat you with experience." Alkaline brought me down to his level and that showed poorly on my behalf. We have been given permission to not so much "police" these boards, but to help defeat morons with common sense and intelligent debate. Most morons will shut up once they've been owned a few times. I still think it's a good idea and I am willing and wanting to continue on in a civilvized manner.
