Okie, since I don't have this game anymore. My wologin was Cloudie86 and since I don't have this game anymore, my last action could be to help fix the cheating problem. I need someone of the renguard's staff's email for a fix on this last cheat. It is specially called "Lag Cheat" for it isn't from a 56K. Here is the story of the foundings of the Lag Cheat. One day I was on GSA, and on a server. I was generally trying to get rid of lag like all of us. But i stumbled across a trick to trick my computer into seening everyone lag but have no lag effect on me. It does not require anything to work, no files, no skins, nothing. Renguard does not prevent this cheat from being use. I will need any admin's email to tell of the function and how it works so we can fix the problem and Renegade can be cheat free.

Farewell but not goodbye
