xptekNo, Alkaline, I have a court case in Australia against me with a claim of Copyright Infringement. If I forge anything in ANY country, it can be used as evidence against me. I'm not that stupid. If you wish to continue a debate about 3 words PM me.

You obviously dont know what Phpmyadmin is. Crimson, care to explain?

Actually yes you are, how can it be proven that you are the same person someone claims to be. I'm not sure about Australian law, But I damn well know about US law esp. LA law. The intent online can be considered to be caprious. But like I said I don't know anything about Australian law so maybe me and AOD should submit this to the prosecuting party :twisted:
