Maybe your Englisch is a load of crap. The way you typed your post is not in the form of a question, but as a statement that says Renguard is a load of crap. Therefore people treat you like a load of crap.

Now please edit your post or something and make it look more like this: "story what went wrong, ask how to solve problem" so not: "undetailed story about it not working right opinion".

You understand now? or else do you already get Englisch lessons at school?. If you do get lessons you might ask your teacher how to ask a question in Englisch.

kids these days... tsk
