I agree, I wasn't going to make the list of people I didn't like, I was gonna make it with people who have made themselves to be idiots.

In fact, scratch the list idea, if you value my opinion and you wanna know who I think are idiots, you can PM me or IM me, whatever you want. I'm still keeping NFD just as a "title." Not to act on it, but to show that I don't take shit from fucktards.

Hmm...I've been a little bit of a hypocrite lately. Oh well, the actual attempt to maintain NFD was fun, but it's time that it stops being an organization type deal. I still wish it to be a group, Crimson, if you could please keep it. And anyone who wants to be a "member" then go ahead and ask me to join, but it'll just remain that...a membership.
