MrBobIRON-FARTThey said that Jesus will appear in the year 2000 also, and that the world will end.

By "they" I hope you do not mean that scripture said that, because the Word does not mention when the world will end; Jesus doesn't even know.

By "they" I mean those fanatics who are obsessed with the end of the world and believe its going to happen in their lifetime. The wierdo's who said the end of the world was going to happen in 2000....maybe it's late...it'll happen in 2001 etc.

The people who start all this stuff.
