people wonder why holy wars start..... MrBob thinks agnostics or non-believers destroy his country.....infadels.....wait that reminds me havent we heard that word before? Just think where it lead serveral hundred countries just a few years ago.....all because one religion thought others were wrong....

Look at the Jews and Muslims they have slaughtered each other for thousands of years now and yet the blood still flows in their wars.....

Whats your point? If it were up to you would you kill of people who choose not to believe in god? Christian hypocrite? what about god "giving" the people free will, and in that will the right to choose, even if in his eyes it want the right choice? Yes? No? If yes then i believe you are being somewhat contradictive of yourself. If no then i believe both the bible and the religion you hold so dear is a contradiction in itself.

But in hummanity people are free to choose, free to live how they please. The only thing that may stop them is being thrown in Jail...but they still made that choice. All i can say is the non-believers will never believe, the Christians will never forget....so stop trying to ram it down the throats of others.

And btw shouldnt this now be in politics and hot issues?
