If there are three snipers on a team, and you enter their base with one airbourne unit, with no support, like what you're SUGGESTING, then you do deserve what happens.

I would bet that if you attack with more than 2 or 3 airbourne units, those snipers would either be killed, or wouldn't be able to stop at least one of those airbourne units from taking cover behind a structure and repairing.

Or if you have support! Those snipers might take a few pot shots, but I can guarantee you if the sniper had any sense, they'd want to take out that hotwire or technician that is trying to sneak in over your airbourne unit.
