flyingfoxA tool to the joke of course.

What joke? Are you saying that you were acting n00bish on purpose so as to make a few laughs? If so, that didn't work because people believed you were that big of a moron. I certainly did.

If you're gonna joke around, at least state it as such or talk in excessive n00b speak so we understand that you are joking. There ARE that big of idiots in these forums who are stupid enough to say what you did and talk in all caps.

If you were actually serious about the "DEV IS BACK..." shit, then I still don't see what "joke" to which I am a "tool."
