Umbral_DelaFlareA vote for Bush is a vote for terrorism!

I do believe the Republican party has someone WAY better than Bush to offer (come on, even the hardcore Republicans have to admit he has made SOME mistakes), but my loyalties are firm. Hmm, like who? About the only thing George W. Bush has done that I disapprove of is the humungous budget he submitted to Congress which then overspends on everything in the already too large budget. That medicare bill he signed into law was the worst action he has done during his presidency as there should be no welfare, medicare or social security government-funded programs at all.

But that's about it. His economic policies have brought us out of the Clinton recession and the War on Terrorism is going better than expected. His massive spending habits are about the only bad things that I see in him.
