Someone, add me to your buddy list (foxofts). I'm curious as to why people don't mention it either. Let's play a 2 player and see if we can see each other doing it. You might've seen your brother do it because you guys are on a LAN or because you have the toggle in your input01.

Also, I need a standard input01 because I didn't back up my original. I'll use the standard (without the toggles) and see if I can see someone WITH them do it. Blazer, whereabouts in the file do you add that line?
