I have just got myslef in to a new clan via a clan tryout but they would like me to get a new name...

So I decided to get a new e-mail and register myself...

Fair enough I registered my new nick and I go to use it online then...

Connecting............Unable to connect.........Unable to connect to WOL servers...

I can log in with any other nickname except this one?

Could anybody help me.

EDIT: Sorry I meant to put this in the tech forum how do I move it.
