Compared to saying a mammoth kills a building in 14 seconds, I hardly think the omission of a letter from a nick is such a hideous mistake.

Believe whatever you want. It was your server. It was the nick CEspoony. It was the same IP as before. It was after you banned me. Those are the facts.

You might want to ask the person who banned me the second time (I.E. the game with N00b1us). I'm not sure who that was, but there was an admin message saying something along the lines of: "CEspoony is also known as thexorb and xxd0mexx. He is banned forever"
(For this person's information, I am indeed thexorb, but I am not xxd0mexx)
