The War Angels are hosting a renegade tourney for both AOW and Snipe.

Sign up at the forums on <http://thewarangel.net/TwA/modules/news/>

here are some details:

TwA_Charmd

1. You are not allowed to be in 2 teams, but you can be in one team for the snipe and in another team for the AOW.
2. If we found out you have been in more than one team for aow or snipe then you will be disqualified, and also your main team you were in may be disqualified.
3. Maps that are going to be played will be posted soon, and 3 maps will be played for AOW and 3 maps for Snipe.
4. Keep in mind to always keep an eye open in the forum section to see when your team is going to play and against who, and we are going to post it one week before, depending on how many join.
5. Every game that is played one person going to control it ... wish mean that a person be in there to check so everything work as it shall and that the ss we need to have better control over it be taken (team names that was played must be added when the ss be sent to the leaders in TwA, so always keep in mond to not forget what teams it was that played) .
6. Cheats are not allowed, if anyone is found cheating they will be disqualified along with their team, and then banned from all TwA servers.
7. The servers that are going to be ran for the tourney are going to be using RenGuard. Get it at <http://www.renguard.com> NOW
8. If anyone in your team cant play at the time their game is supposed to be, then either you can replace that person with someone else(that is not in another team) or also ask for a new time and then we will try and work things out for you.

More rules be up as soon as we get more :S

Ok.. lets see if I can do this as good as possible .. Since there are many people playing Renegade, we in TwA came up with this idea... First it started out with a topic TwA_SnipeJD made and then TwA_Katie came up with more ideas, and now they have been growing in my head and the outcome for it is this:

C&C Renegade 2004 tournament ..

Snipe

AOW

Snipe

Sniping teams will be paired 4x4.

First Place Prize is acquired by getting the most kills during the length of the tourney.

A screenshot must be taken before the game is over, so we are able to see the kills each team had so we can count them towards the total tournament kills for each team. The team with the most kills wins.

AOW

AOW teams will be paired 6x6.

tourney,

and at end of the tourney, all the players in the winning team get a prize.

A screenshot must be taken before the game is over, so we can see the team points and can count them towards the total points for that team in the tournament

AOW is a good way to team up with players who are in your clan (if you are in a clan). If a Clan participates, they will be given a tourney banner or a slogan to get up on their clan site.

You are allowed to sign up for all the games but are only allowed to be in one team. No double teaming.

This Renegade tournament is created and hosted by the founders, leaders and section leaders from the clan The War Angels.

If you want to donate for this tourney then please contact TWA_Charmmed.

The money donated will go towards a tourney fund, which will be used for the prizes and for all the work/hosting that will be done for the length of the tourney. (this is first meant for the clan TWA, when we are the clan who stand for the tourney)

The prizes have not been decided, but it should be done by the middle of this month.
