Ok For all of you who are concerned with the way the rules have been presented, i appreciate your concerns and have re-written the rules for charmed.

TwADarK:

Quote:

1. You are not allowed to be in 2 teams, but you can be in one team for the sniping and in one team for the AOW.
2. If we find out that you have been in multiple teams for AOW or sniping then you will be disqualified, and also the team you have been in may be disqualified also.
3. The maps that are going to be played will be up soon. Three maps will be played for AOW and three maps for Sniping.
4. Make sure you always keep an eye open in the Tournament section of the forum to see when your team will play and against who. We are going to add it 1 week before it happens depending on the spots.
5. In every game that is played, one person will be in control of it ... which means that a person will be in there to check that everything works as it should and that the SS we need to have better control over it is taken (The names of teams that played must be added when the SS is sent to the leaders in Twa, so always keep in mind to not forget what teams it was that played).
6. Cheats are not allowed, and if anyone in your team uses a cheat you will all be disqualified and the cheater will also be banned for life on all servers that are hosted by The War Angels.
7. The servers that are going to be run for the tourney are going to use RenGuard.
8. If anyone in your team can't play the date the game will be, then either you can replace that person with someone else, who is not in any team, or also ask for a new date and then we move next clan after up in the spots.

Ok, my part :

Okay, let's try to do this in the best way possible. Since there are so many people playing C&C Renegade, we, TwA, (The War Angels for those of you who don't know), came up with an idea.

To begin with, the idea emerged from a topic that Twa_SnipeJD made, TwAKatie developed the idea further and this resulted in my decision to host a tournament.

C&C Renegade 2004 tournament.

The tournament will have two categories:

Snipe

AOW (all out war)

Snipe

The teams will consist of four people on each side.

The prize for 1st Place may be acquired by getting the most kills in the course of the whole tournament. A screenshot must be shown before the game is over, so we are able to see the kills and may keep a record for the end of the tournament.

AOW

The teams will consist of six people on each side.

The prize for 1st Place may be acquired by getting the most points in the course of the whole tournament.

However in the AOW category all the players in the winning team have the opportunity of earning a prize.

A screenshot must be shown before the game is over, so we are able to see the points and may keep a record for the end of the tournament.

AOW is an excellent opportunity to team up with players who are in your clan (if you are in a clan). If a clan participates, we will distribute a tournament banner for them to put on their clan website.

You are allowed to sign up for both games however, signing up for more than one team will NOT be tolerated. Please do not do this.

This Renegade tournament is created by the founders, leaders and section leaders from the clan known as TwA (The War Angels)

Visit our site at Http://thewarangels/twa/

If you would like to donate towards the tournament please contact TwA_Charm'd via the TwA forum. Any money donated will go towards a fund which will be used for

- Prizes

- Server Hosting

- Organisation of the tournament

Any donations would be greatly appreciated.

We have not decided what the prizes will be yet, however this will be decided mid-June.
