I appreciate the layout that you guys did for us, but that doesn't change the fact that Deadaim00 is traitorous, and that you failed to come through on any of the change requests that I made for the site itself.

I don't know what more proof you could want. Here is a brief outline of the events over the last few days:

1. Deadaim00 sent me an in-game screenshot of the internal beta, and implied that he had the beta featuring the submarine and map.
2. I talked to ACK, who immediately becomes suspicious of one of his team members having leaked the beta.
3. Deadaim changes his story (for the first time) about the origin of the picture - he says that he made it from a modified screenshot of ACK's movie of the submarine.
4. ACK confirms that the team member he previously suspected of leaking the beta did, the person confesses immediately, and says that he gave it to a known friend of Deadaim00's.
5. Deadaim00 is banned from the Renalert forums.
6. Deadaim00 comes here, starts this thread, and again (second time) changes his story about the origin of the picture - now he says that someone took the picture while using his name in a 1 player lan. However, that doesn't explain the fact that Deadaim00 sent the picture to me - unless, of course, he is framing himself....

In any case, Deadaim00 is obviously up to something, as always. He gave three different testimonies about the origin of the in-game screenshot that he sent me. He has known connections with the person to whom the submarine beta was leaked. He is known to be mischeivous, and to brown-nose his way into internal betas and such.
