xptekxptek"Forgiveness can't change the past, but it does enlarge the future."

You haven't given us any good reason to forgive you, unless you consider acting like an arrogant ass and lying to everyone to be worthy of a nice attitude from us. It'll take a lot of work and time to forgive what you did, and I'm sure you probably couldn't care less. Just leave us the hell alone, we really don't care to put up with your wonderful personality. I'm done, but only because I don't want vlok's topic locked.
