mahkral have NEVER banned people to steal their tanks (except teammates, of course, but the tanks were actually mine in the first place, which is why the people got banned), so I don't know what the hell you're talking about here.

I'm sure there was a perfectly valid reason you banned two enemy players. And I'm sure it was a complete coincidence that they both happened to be in your base with flame tanks. And I'm sure the fact that yourself and ZoogLer rushed the Nod base immediately after was equally coincidental :rolleyes:

You're either lying or your memory fails you
