How dare you say that he was not a great president? You may not agree with his policies, but you can sure as hell see the results of it. You could have just shut your mouth and not said a word, but you had to slam a former president who DIED. Very mature. You wouldn't want someone to go, "He was an idiot, but may he rest in peace." when you die, why do you think that you should be able to do that to others? He was a brilliant mind and if the moronic republicans of the 50s wouldn't have passed the law saying a president can't be in office for more than 2 terms Reagan could very well have won another term. He was a brilliant man, a brilliant leader, and may God rest his soul.
