Quote:Woke up at 7 AM. Cleaned off the back porch, rearranged the table and chairs, moved the plants around on the tile, and washed everything off again.

Went back inside, mopped the floor of the kitchen, washed dishes, took care of the puppies, and sat down to watch TV for a few minutes.

Walked up to the corner store for some breakfast consisting of three cheese danishes and a bottle of milk. Came back, drove to Food World in Niceville for soda, and frozen burritos (which I happen to love), then came back.

Tended to the garden by getting eaten up by mosquitos... After tying the tomato plants to stakes to keep them upright.

And here I am. Busy Saturday. Oh, and I finished some game development work(Found time to make 4 posts about its a texture not a skin) in the midst of all that.

Sleep soon, after Inuyasha comes on so she can ram this stick further up my ass.
Yup you are so kool!!!
