I don't need to speak French. It's a useless language in the world when most people who do international relations, including business transactions and diplomacy, use English. You're speaking English in an English forum.

Quote:You tell people we don't care about what they want and that we don't want to fix the bugs... Not true !!! Only lies from you. And people will see that you were telling lies, believe me.

Sounds suspiciously similar to Angel of Dawn. "Most of your lies are not true!"

<@JeffLee67[Woodworking]> NNN News Update: Mars lander problem has been isolated: It apparently has some Reborn code in it. When it deployed, it just blew up! When AoD was contacted about the faulty code, he had this to say: "The lander works fine, you liked it a year ago! Most of your lies are not true!"
