It has its ups and downs, one of the downs is the sniper rifles. The zoom isn't very far and when your snipe a tard in the head it doesn't always hit the head. That and stupid bots not having the kindness of a heli pickup. One time they were nice enough to do it, then guess what bail out ??? The chopper was fine the bots were stupid I, however didn't know how to parachute out and die on impact. I even saw stupid idiots in tanks make a wrong turn and fall off the cliff side.
