AprimeGo check the topic in the General Discussion Forum, the problem was solved, his server was infected by a virus and over 500 were also infected by it.

That wasn't it, the mod is virus free according to PC-Cillian. When I connect to WOL, I see no servers, even though there are servers up, and when I try direct connect, I get a version mismatch error. When I set up a LAN game using two computers, I can't connect to the other. My internet is functioning properly, and renegade and renalert work fine.
