Sir PhoenixxWhat does your apparent inability to read have to do with "getting a life", or how I think of myself? Why don't you stop pulling random crap out of nowhere.

(Wait, who's the one who needs a life? You're the child who can't shut up about something this stupid and accept the fact that you're wrong.)

Obviously you are argueing with yourself then. Did I say I was Right? Am I the one droning on? Am I the one Contradicting myself? I think not. Feel free to stay and argue with yourself. That coupon might come in handy. This is over.
