NeoXSir Phoenixx you have changed...you used to be cool a nice guy. But after you have been working with a certain someone you have now become an asshole.

Oh yeah, I'm an asshole because I got into a single argument with someone once because apparently "The Destroyer is being remade." means the same as "The Gunboat will be remade again."

Plus, I've been on Renegade Alert with Aircraftkiller nearly the entire time I've been in the community, this simple fact disproves "you've changed because of working with a certain someone".

Quote:I post this here why? because when ever I post in your other forums you either delete my post or simple ignore it. Yea your going to dig up i wrote Airdicksucker..go for it i dont care he is period, at least I'm not a dick to everyone else and delete there posts because I am afraid of some critisim. END

What? I've NEVER deleted any of your posts. There's no way that last part can possibly be true, most of the replies to the mod updates consist of constructive criticism, like "The [turret/barrel/text/etc.] looks [wrong/too large/too small/etc.]", and they're not deleted.
