40% of the time? Maybe if you lack discipline.

If you're going to fix that, fix the bug there where you can beacon the Airstrip from the top of the bunker or the fact that you can jump on the back of the WF and beacon as well, otherwise don't bother fixing any of them. While you're at it, fix all the levels where you can teamjump onto the tops of stuff you can't get on either, if we're all worried about making things how they were intended.
