DeathgodNo, grenadiers can damage from both sides. You need to angle very high and be right at the wall almost to hit it from the infantry side, but it can be done.

Yea, i've done it before, but sometimes by the time you get it right, a Nod soldier is standing on the wall shooting your head in.

Same with on the vehicle side, you have to get your tank just in the right place in order to damage the strip. Easier than with a nader, but still doesn't damage it from a lot of angles.
