OT: 0mg That's so wierd LOL Which WalMart do you like better, the South Windsor one, or the Manchester one? I highly suggest to not go to the Manchester one, the lines take 45 minutes to get through, and then last time we went we had to go through another line which took 10 minutes to do to get out of the door because the walmart people had to put an X on your receipt for no apparent reason, they didn't even check your bags compared to your receipt or anything to see if you were trying to steal anything which was probably the reason that was set up. It was so stupid .
