xC4pRoXWhy can't people read past gramtical/spelling mistakes? It's not really THAT hard...Tub says:

"I want to put a song in my website, but I can't find any sites to upload the song to, can somebody hook me up with a site so I can upload my song?"

Yeah, but that takes too much time. I don't really want to strain myself to try to understand someone's gibberish. I can understand misspellings and no punctuation, but when it gets ridiculous, it gets extremely difficult to understand.
