I just wish that i could just double click on renegade watch the intro demo and then just find a good ol server with good ol people cheaters and all.

I would rather just deal with the cheaters and find um the good ol way...

And please dont tell me just to unintstall it because like 10 of my favorite servers are using rengaurd...

Just wish the good ol days were back....

actually i wish too

many cheaters were banned from ren

and if renguard keeps being like this then there is many probs with it so i hope all the bad things will be patched then it can be turned into modern world again

Give it time, it's barely been out over a week. It's still gonna have bugs, we're just basically telling partiiman to shut the fuck up.
