This is to any gamespy players/clans that would like a very cheap server for C&C Renegade or infact a number of popular games then goto this site and check it out

<http://www.escapedturkey.com>

They are looking at running a dedicated renegade server.

They offer 24 player server for $25 a month or 32 player $35 a month

If any of your are looking at getting a server on gamespy then use a refferal name of WNxjka. This will also give my section a free month for our JKA server.

Anyway. Just use the main site and use the support option to ask about it. He wants to test it out so I think that you would be very happy with the service offered by him.

Hope this helps people.

Tilly
