Like I said on IRC:

<xptek> I.need.it

<xptek> You're not the one paying $99 a month for a server.

<xptek> So, until you are, STFU. You don't know how much money I've put in it.

[[08:47]] <%Aircraftkiller> Run it on GSA

[[08:47]] <%Aircraftkiller> There are other alternatives to WOL.

[[08:47]] <%Aircraftkiller> And none of them include "OMG WOL IS DOWN EA SUXXXXX"

This thread isn't designed to be some stupid IRC role play thread. Create a new one for that. This is to inform people WOL is down.

No shit, but you turned it into a role play. My first post was to try to get the bickering to stop. Then the second one was for fun.

it was trying to get you two to stop. Yours are real IRC messages, so why the fuck are we posting them in here? Not like the rest of us want to hear a debate that you two had already fought. So my fake messages were to get you two to stop, sorry if I didn't wanna see fighting. Yes, I acknowledge the fact that I could ignore the thread, but how the fuck was I supposed to know it contained a debate when I first saw the topic?

It wasn't aimed at you. It was a simple message to all that this isn't what the threads purpose is.
